

William James, a Strathmore, Calif., farmer was once a tramp. He settled down, now has a profitable farm and sympathizes with the hoboes. He will give them a meal and a bed if they are willing to do a little work. Wonder what will happen when the L. W. W. hits him and burns down his house, or something?

The Ladies of the M. E. Aid will hold a cake and pie sale every second and fourth Saturday in each month. Any one desiring a certain kind of cake or pie call either Mrs. Jessie Jackson, Mrs. Ethel Dorris or Mrs. L. C. Averill, and tell them the kind you want and they will see that you get it. 14-15

Bayless L. Guffy left last night for St. Louis, where he will look after some legal matters pertaining to Drainage District No. 11.

Catarhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surface. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surface of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

MARK DORROH IS DEAD

Mark Dorroh is dead. The end came in Memphis last Friday afternoon at the Methodist hospital where he had gone a few days before to receive an operation of rather a serious nature, from which developed pneumonia causing his death. Mark was but little past thirty-nine years old, and was therefore at the peak of manhood, where life's golden days begin. His passing was at the brightest of life's noonday, before the gloom and chill of the evening shadows fell about him. Mark was well-known and well-liked here. His friends were numbered to the extent of his acquaintance. He was a brother of Charlie Dorroh of the Caruthersville Hardware Company, with whom he was associated in business off and on since his coming to this county about twenty years ago. At the time of his death he lived in Blytheville, and was manager of a mercantile concern in which his brother was interested. Besides his wife, Mark also leaves a mother, brother and sister, who reside in Caruthersville, to mourn his untimely end. The remains were brought through Hayti last Saturday noon and were accompanied from here to Caruthersville by a number of friends and relatives. After the funeral at the residence of his mother Sunday afternoon, interment was made in Little Prairie Cemetery.

"IRISH FRANK"

"Irish Frank" of Somewhere, is in town. Frank is the pioneer painter of Hayti. He came when the town had three saloons and but one real store. Frank did his part to save the saloons from bankruptcy, though that was more than once his physical penalty for his generosity. He let the stores take care of themselves. But no better painter ever hit Hayti. He was known as a good, honest Irishman. At intervals, for years, Frank has disappeared into Somewhere. When nearly forgotten Frank has always had the habit of showing up. So it was this time, but Frank's face was not as luminous as in olden days before the Volstead drought grasped the county in its clutches and squeezed it dry. "Frank," we asked, "what are you doing here?" "Come to town to get a gun," he replied. "Going to shoot a man with it," he continued. "Why 'Frank,' we suggested, 'they will hang you for that.' 'Nope,' Frank said, 'I'll plead self-defense. You see it is like this: Fellow bribed me to hush a little 'white male' about Christmas. It had live in it, and like to ate up my buddies. The next fellow that tries to seduce me with a 'white male' I'm gonna shoot him. Any fair guy would acquit a man on the grounds of self-defense.'"

We doubt not that Frank is right. Bootleggers, beware.

J. M. Byrd of the Concord neighborhood, was in town last Saturday.

PEMISCOT COUNTY FARM BUREAU NEWS

"The co-operative marketing movement is fostered by the American Farm Bureau Federation is a protest expressed in action against excessive margins and distributive costs. It is no new thing. It has been carried on successfully in Europe for hundreds of years. Within less than fifty years Denmark, through co-operative marketing, has reduced distribution costs so that the producer receives 72 cents of the consumer's dollar, more than twice as much as we get here, and thru co-operative marketing has rehabilitated her entire national prosperity."

"Secretary Wallace comes out of the national agricultural conference with his hands greatly strengthened to perform a real and definite service for agriculture and the nation. Particularly notable in the endorsements of the conference are the farmers' demands for early completion of the St. Lawrence deep waterway, for the development of Muscle Shoals by Henry Ford, the building of a credit machine adapted to a farm turnover at reasonable rates of interest, and that both capital and labor must share alike in the readjustments which have already hit agriculture."

"The conference would probably never have been possible except for the work of the congressional joint commission of agricultural inquiry under the progressive leadership of Chairman Sidney Anderson. To President Harding, Secretary Wallace and Chairman Anderson the farmers of America are today rendering a sincere vote of thanks for this opportunity to present their case in the nation and to seek a just and lasting remedy for the benefit of both agriculture and the nation."

DIED, MRS MINNIE E. SPEER

After a considerable period of declining health, Mrs. Minnie E. Speer died at her home near Bragg, Mo., Monday, February 13, 1922, aged 61 years, eight months and six days. After the funeral, attended by a large number of friends and relatives, interment was made Tuesday afternoon, in the family burying plot in the garden, in the rear of her home.

For a number of years Mrs. Speer had been in feeble health, but her condition had only been considered serious a short while before the end came. She was a most estimable lady, loved and highly respected by all who knew her. She was the widow of the late W. W. Speer, who died about twenty years ago, and by whose side she was laid away for the long, long rest. Most of her life having been spent in this county, she saw it develop from the hardships of the pioneers to what it is today—almost a new world, with new people, with new instrumentalities.

Mrs. Speer leaves three children, their names being: Judge Everton Speer, Mrs. Minnie E. Boone, and Mrs. Joy Taylor, all of whom reside in this county. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Robert S. Hart, of this city.

The funeral was largely attended, practically the whole neighborhood being present, besides many from Caruthersville and Hayti. Among those attending from here were: Blair Buckley and wife, Mrs. Buckley being a niece of the deceased; L. C. Averill, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Allen, Mrs. J. S. Sturm, and Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Hart, Mrs. Hart being the sister referred to above.

Mrs. Speer had spent a most useful christian life, with which she imbued her children, who walk faithfully in her footsteps. None know her but to admire and to esteem. And from the beyond her influence will come back like the purified rays of some distant star, to guide the way of those who follow to the better world.

For those who mourn The Herald sincerely shares its sympathy, and whispers the consolation that your kindred, your friend, this good lady, has paid the last debt of life, and is at rest where neither sickness, nor sorrow, nor death, can ever again come, for there life is eternal!

MISSOURI BONUS

For the benefit of the ex-soldiers who are in doubt as to the manner of the distribution of the Missouri bonus I wish to state that I have taken up with the State authorities and also had the pleasure of talking personally with the Chairman of the Bonus Commission, Adj.-General Raupp. He informs me that it will be two or three months before payment can be made as the bonds must be sold and it is the desire of the Commission to have everything in readiness before the application blanks are sent out. He requests that persons do not write him about the matter. He is now receiving an average of 260 letters daily relative to the matter, some are sending in their discharges. It takes time to answer these letters, the discharges must be returned and all this makes extra work and can only delay the payment. General Raupp states that the blanks will be forwarded to the Phillips-Hudgings Post for all ex-soldiers in this community and preparations are being made by this Post to handle this matter. Other articles will appear from time to time as information is received relative to this matter. Anyone who has lost his discharge should take steps at once to obtain a Certificate in Lieu of Lost Discharge. I will be glad to assist any one in this matter.

Any ex-soldier who desires information along this line may write will gladly help him. I will gladly help him.

LYMAN H. SIDES,

Adjutant, Phillips-Hudgings Post No. 88, The American Legion.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Reinhard entertained a few friends Saturday evening, at their beautiful home, dancing being the feature of the evening, followed by a delightfully served Spragetti Supper at midnight. Those present for the occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brittin, Herman Reynolds of this city, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bernard, Mrs. Neil Helm, Major Mitchell, Dr. Phipps and Mr. Vanderberger, of Caruthersville.

Formerly Mother used to be anxious about the danger that the kids would get hurt by explosions in the chemistry class, but now she is worrying for fear Dad's home brew will blow up.

The man who insists on telling his troubles is nearly as disagreeable as the man who refuses to listen to ours.

LADIES MASS MEETING

The ladies of Hayti are requested to come together in a mass meeting at the High School Auditorium Saturday afternoon (tomorrow) February 18, at 2:30 p. m., to organize and formulate for unity of action in the forthcoming city election. The men have already taken this step, and since the women now have the right to vote, that right also carries with it the duty to vote, and above all, to vote right. Let every woman in town who has the good of the community at heart, attend this meeting. That is the only way to have clean politics—is for clean people to get together, and unite their strength. Perhaps the influence of this meeting will be far-reaching. By the way, the women who attend will be a thermometer by which the interest of the women will be judged. This means all together.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Preaching at 11:00 a. m., and at 7:00 p. m. Prayer meeting Wednesday night at 7:00 p. m. Good services were had last Sunday. The Sunday school is doing splendid work. Come and help make all the services better. W. C. SCOTT, Pastor.

In Conversation,

To guard against repeating a story to the same person is a point worth noting. The inclination to interrupt or correct others for inaccuracies must be controlled. Not only must we try to say the right thing in the right place, but leave unaided the right thing at the temptable moment.

Being informed in the schools of the dangers of lack of nutrition, the children of Hayti on arriving home immediately make a grand rush for the doughnut jar.
